A SEASON OF EAR TINGLING
THE BENJAMIN GENERATION - PART V

[11] And the LORD said to Samuel: "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make the ears of everyone who hears about it tingle.

I Samuel 3:11

[12] About Benjamin he said: "Let the beloved of the LORD rest secure in him, for he shields him all day long, and the one the LORD loves rests between his shoulders."

Deuteronomy 33:12

[1] These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish (they were among the warriors who helped him in battle; [2] they were armed with bows and were able to shoot arrows or to sling stones right-handed or left-handed; they were relatives of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin):

I Chronicles 12:1,2

I. Gods 1% leaders.

   A. The Benjamin generation are ambidextrous.

   B. They can use their weapons equally with both hands.

   C. The Benjamin generation mono-tasks; they don't multi-task.

   D. No focus equals fruitlessness.

   E. The wrong focus equals fruitlessness.

   F. Power comes with focus.

G. Order follows focus.

H. Talent flows to focus.

I. Peace flows from focus.

II. Coup d'oeil / Napoleon's glance.

   A. Napoleon saw when and where to fight in a sudden flash of insight. (Pronounced coo doy)

   B. Napoleon did not know where he would fight until coup d'oeil came to him.

      * That's why most of his victories were in places with unusual names.

   C. Napoleon studied all the great generals, and knew all of their successful tactics, and kept them like arrows in his quiver. He would then bring them to bear in a single moment.

   D. Napoleon never tried to impose his will on circumstances, rather he yielded to them.

   E. The only time Napoleon ever lost is when he rejected coup d'oeil and told his enemies where he was going.

   F. If you don't see a battle to win, keep moving until you do.

   G. Like Napoleon, take the sum of all your and others' knowledge, wisdom, and experience, and apply all of these as the Holy Spirit leads you in each divine appointment.